

DEATH COMES IN TURKISH BATH

Warren M. Lowry Expires of Heart Failure Due to Heat in Steam Room.

WAS DEAD WHEN FOUND

EFFORTS MADE TO RESUSCITATE HIM ARE TOO LATE.

Warren M. Lowry, for several years bartender at the Old Resort saloon, was found dead in the steam room of the Sanitarium at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Death was caused by heart failure, induced by the heat and steam.

Lowry, who was 39 years old, and who had suffered from a weakness of the heart for some time, left his work at the Old Resort saloon about 11:30 o'clock Monday night, and went to the Sanitarium, where he received towels and went to the big pool.

About 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning an attendant of the Sanitarium saw Lowry's clothes in the dressing room, and began a tour of investigation. He found Lowry's body lying face downward on a cot in the steam room. As quickly as possible Lowry was removed to the cool air, and efforts were made to resuscitate him. The attendants notified Dr. C. F. Pinkerton, who pronounced Lowry dead, saying that life had been extinct for more than a half hour.

Friends of the man state that he had been suffering from cold for some time, and had gone to the baths to cure this trouble. No inquest will be held.

Lowry, who lived at 651 West Sixth South street, is survived by a widow and one child, a boy 5 years old. He had lived in Salt Lake all his life.

JAMES GADDIE IS KILLED

Defective Generator at Sugar City
Breaks With Fatal Results to Old Employee.

By the accidental breaking of a generator at the plant of the Idaho Sugar company, at Sugar City, Ida., at 1:45 o'clock yesterday, James Gaddie an old employee, was almost instantly killed, and another man was wounded in the hand. The accident occurred just as Gaddie, who is employed as a mechanic, was about to shut off the generator. It is not definitely known whether or not he actually touched the machine, but suddenly, and without the slightest warning, there was a loud report, followed by the hiss of escaping steam, some of the flying parts having punctured the steam pipes. The lights went out immediately, and for a time the steam was so dense it was impossible to see the extent of the damage. A quick connection was at once made with the Teton City Light & Power Co.'s plant, and when the lights were again switched on, Gaddie was discovered dead beside the broken generator.

The dead man was about 50 years of age, and had been in the employ of the company for a number of years. His home was at Lehi, Utah, where he leaves a family of grown up children. He is a half-brother of Samuel R. Thurman, an attorney at Salt Lake.

An inquest was immediately held, and the jury, after investigating the case, returned a verdict of accidental death. Thomas R. Cutler, general manager of the company, left Salt Lake last evening for the scene of the accident, and upon his arrival the plant will probably be ordered closed for a period of twelve hours out of respect to the unfortunate man.

While this company has suffered a number of minor accidents, this is the fifth death in the sixteen years of its existence, with a pay roll of rarely less than 2,000 men.

REGRETS OF THE UNION PACIFIC

Road Was Willing to Grant
Rates to Families of Ministers and Army Officers.

OMAHA, OCT. 16.—

In commenting upon the press dispatches from Washington, giving the substance of a series of orders issued by the interstate commerce commission relating to the construction of section 6 of the recently amended interstate commerce law, E. L. Lomax, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, said:

"We have not yet received an official ruling from the interstate commerce commission covering these matters, but have no doubt that the news from Washington is authentic and that within a day or two we will receive from the commission circulars embodying their rulings. I regret to note that they have decided that the provisions of the act prohibiting the issuance of free or reduced rate transportation to army and navy officers, members of their families, or the families of the clergy."

A Matter of Regret.

"The Union Pacific, with its related lines, has maintained the position that it is not an unjust discrimination to grant half rates to these classes, although it is true that other carriers have taken a different view. In fact, I think the Union Pacific and its connections are the only roads that have made half rates to army officers and their families and to the families of clergy since the new law took effect. Each time an army officer is transferred he is obliged to defray the expenses of moving his family from his personal funds, and since we have acquired our insular possessions these transfers seem to be remarkably frequent and involve long journeys, where the railroad fare is expensive. This business is not competitive and it is a disappointment that the commission has made a ruling which will require us to discontinue the present practice. The same statement is true of the families of clergy, who are moved almost as frequently as army officers."

MONEY WAS NOT THE OBJECT

Chicago Tribune Gets Reward for Stensland and Turns It
Over to Receiver.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The Chicago Clearing House association today sent to James Keeley, managing editor of the Chicago Tribune, a check for $5,000, the amount of the reward offered by the association for the capture of Paul O. Stensland, the former president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, who was arrested in Tangier, and who is serving a sentence in the penitentiary at Joliet.

The check was by Mr. Keeley, for the Tribune, at once turned over to the receiver of the bank, to be included among the assets and ultimately distributed among the depositors. In addition to sending this check to the receiver of the bank, the Tribune, which bore the entire expense incident to the pursuit, capture and return of Stensland, has made a present to the taxpayers of Cook county of the total sum expended in the undertaking, which amounted to another $5,000.

ANOTHER DAYLIGHT HOLD-UP IN OAKLAND

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 16.—A daring daylight hold-up was perpetrated today when Bessie M. Hallet of 906 Fourteenth street was held up on Market street, between Sixteenth and Fourteenth streets. The scene of the hold-up is within a stone's throw of a drug store, a grocery and the polytechnic school. Miss Hallet was walking along when a man drove up in a buggy. He jumped out, seized her purse and hastily getting into the vehicle dashed down Market street.

Miss Hallet describes the thief as being 35 years of age, wearing a dark suit and dark slouch hat. He drove a brown horse.

CONTROL OF THE GRAIN MARKET

Rules of Chicago Board of Trade Declared to Be in Restraint of Trade.

BROKER ON WITNESS STAND

AGREEMENT BETWEEN ELEVATOR COMPANIES.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Richard Gambrell, a board of trade broker, was the first witness called today when the interstate commerce commission resumed its inquiry into the methods of handling grain in the west and northwest.

Mr. Gambrell declared that the rules of the Chicago board of trade are clearly in restraint of trade and are rapidly making the Chicago grain market, in the words of the witness, a "one-horse proposition."

"A rule is posted on the Chicago board of trade each afternoon," said Mr. Gambrell, "which prevents me from going into the country and bidding for grain. That, to my mind, is detrimental to business and is in restraint of trade."

Two Names Given.

Samuel Finney, another broker on the board of trade, testified that there is an agreement between certain board of trade men, and certain elevator companies, to keep the price of grain in the country, and he named two firms which he declared are a party to this agreement. Employees of these firms were at once served with subpoenas.

President Winchell of the Rock Island road was then called to tell about the purchase of elevators from the Chicago-Rock Island Elevator company for $1,000,000, concerning which Mr. Shaffer testified yesterday.

Agreement of Elevator Men.

James Pettit, president of the Peavey Grain company, testified that up to sixty days ago there was an agreement between six elevator companies whereby their profits on the storage of grain were to be kept in a fund to be redistributed to the companies in proportion to the amount of grain in each storage house. Under this agreement, if no grain went out of the stores, all of the money was returned. If there were now serving in the agreement, and one allowed 100,000 bushels to be taken out, that company would get back two-thirds of the amount it had paid in, and the other company would retain one-third.

Fund to Be Divided.

Mr. Pettit declared that the agreement between the elevator companies provided that each company should pay in three-fifths of one cent a bushel of the storage for the first ten days, the money to be kept in a fund to be redistributed to the companies in proportion to the amount of grain in each storage house. Under this agreement, if no grain went out of the stores, all of the money was returned. If there were now serving in the agreement, and one allowed 100,000 bushels to be taken out, that company would get back two-thirds of the amount it had paid in, and the other company would retain one-third.

Not Sure About Law.

Mr. Pettit declared that he was not sure whether the new rate law would permit of this agreement, and, not being able to obtain a clear opinion as to its legality, he withdrew from the agreement. Those who had been in it with him, he said, were the Armour Elevator company, South Chicago Elevator company and the J. Rosenbaum Grain company. The witness said that the agreement did not prevent competition, but declared that it allowed the bidding of a higher price for grain in the country.

Secretary James of the Armour Elevator company and Armour Grain company was the next witness. He said the Armours control besides these two companies, the Neola Elevator company, Milwaukee Elevator company and the Southwestern Elevator company. He said that the officers in these companies were practically the same. The Neola company, he asserted, leased some elevators from the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company at the rate of $3,500 a quarter, the railroad paying taxes, insurance and repairs.

Keen Competition.

George Marcy, president of the two companies bearing Mr. Armour's name, was the next witness. He declared that the competition for bidding on grain in the country is so keen and there are so many commission men in Chicago after it that by the time the grain reaches Chicago there is little profit in it.

When asked about the rule on the Chicago board of trade fixing prices to be bid on country grain, especially as to its fairness, Mr. Marcy declared it was not fair and that he voted against it.

L. P. Rumsey of Rumsey & Co., for many years a member of the board of trade, then took the stand and declared that he is unqualifiedly in favor of the Grain Dealers' association and in favor of discouraging farmers in the elevator business. He said it was not fair to commission men who deal honorably, and that this state of affairs should not be allowed to go on. He concluded his testimony with the remark:

"The grain dealers are the most honorable men as a class in the world."

Henry E. Jones of Tampa, Fla., writes: "I can thank God for my present health, due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried doctors and all kind of kidney cures, but nothing done me much good till I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back and shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure, I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney medicine."

MIGHT HAVE HAD AN ACCOMPLICE

Another Indictment May Be Found in Connection With the Killing of White.

New York, Oct. 16.—There was a revival of interest today in the case of Harry K. Thaw, charged with the murder of Stanford White, when in court District Attorney Jerome intimated that there might be other indictments in the case.

The statement by the district attorney was made in the course of an argument before Recorder Goff against the writ of prohibition restraining the district attorney's office from further preliminary action in grand jury proceedings in the murder case.

Following the hearing, Clifford W. Hartbridge, Thaw's counsel, called upon the prisoner at the Tombs. After his visit the lawyer explained that Thaw had read the evening papers and learned from what he read of the proceedings before Recorder Goff that an attempt might be made to indict his wife or other members of the family. Mr. Hartbridge said that he had merely called to set Thaw at ease at rest, as there was no danger that any other member of his family or anyone connected with the family would be indicted.

The recorder, at the request of Mr. Jerome, postponed the proceedings until that the district attorney might obtain a formal order having the argument transferred to Justice McLean's court, where it was first heard.

FRANCE ACCUSES VATICAN

Head of Catholic Church Said to Have Conspired With the Monarchists.

Rome, Oct. 16.—The Observateur Romano today published a semi-official article saying that the French cabinet is preparing to attack the vatican at the reopening of the chambers by accusing it of engaging in a conspiracy with the monarchists to overthrow the republic, and giving the following statement as proof of its charges:

"That the royalist press, which opposed the late Pope Leo XIII., approves of Pope Pius X."

"That the royalist leaders urge the pope to support the religious movement in France."

"That the pope granted an interview to the royalist organ, the Gaulois."

The Observateur Romano answers these allegations by stating that Pope Pius, like Pope Leo, loyally accepts the republic, in which the former has repeatedly affirmed, confirming his statement in his recent encyclical on the church and state separation law, and challenges anybody to quote a word uttered by the pope or to adduce a fact showing the pontiff as an enemy of the republic.

The proofs referred to by the French government, the Observateur Romano adds, are not serious. The royalists support the pope, either as good Catholics or for political aims. In the latter case it is not the vatican's fault, "the responsibility resting upon the republic and resulting from the anti-religious measures adopted in opposing the church under the guise of carrying out Republican ideals."

NATIVE RISING IMMINENT

Fanatics of Morocco and Algeria
Said to Be Preparing for Holy War.

Paris, Oct. 16.—The imminence of a formidable native rising in Morocco and Algeria is growing. The French military authorities in Algeria are in a state of apprehension. The commander of the troops in the district of Ain-Sefra has cabled to the minister of war, saying that the preparations among the Moors for a holy war are proceeding energetically. Mouly About, a cousin of the sultan of Morocco, has visited all the tribes and has induced them to cease their internal quarrels and prepare to take the field in the middle of November.

A point for concentration has been chosen on the Wady Ghir, where arms are being collected. The Bengul tribe has been approached by emissaries from the insurgents at Tacella, who are urging the former to join in the movement. No reinforcements of troops will be dispatched from France to Algeria for the present. The measures to be taken will be confined to some concentration of military forces on the Moroccan frontier in order to prevent excursions from the interior.

PRESIDENT PEABODY DENIES THE CHARGES

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 16.—President Charles A. Peabody of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York appeared before Commissioner of Insurance Prewitt late this afternoon and denied charges that his company had violated the law in reference to the approaching election of trustees of the company and that intimidation and coercion had been practiced to influence agents of the company into soliciting votes for the ticket known as the administration ticket. As to the charge that he had dismissed Colonel Briscoe Hindman of Louisville, state agent for Kentucky, because he stood for election on the policyholders' ticket, Mr. Peabody said Colonel Hindman had assured him that he had not accepted the nomination and that, therefore, the Mutual Life had not discharged Colonel Hindman for that reason.
